MEMBERSHIP SUBSCRIPTION

STAR's membership is open to all people who are interested in, and committed to an increased quality of life for all people with intellectual disabilities and their families.

Our work includes information provision, support and advocacy across all areas of people's lives - early childhood, education, recreation, housing, support services, ageing etc.

STAR members get regular copies of our Newsletter, and access to information and support, as well as use of the STAR library. STAR also has a range of publications for sale. There are opportunities for active involvement in STAR through the Board, participation in workshops and campaigns, and writing for or passing on information through the Newsletter.

STAR membership is due and payable on the 1st of May each year.
